50% discount on subscription for RAS / ASAUK members*

Africa Confidential is one of the longest-established specialist publications on Africa, with a considerable reputation for being first with in-depth news and analysis on significant political, economic and security developments across the continent.

Africa Confidential is published fortnightly; equating to 25 Issues per year. The newsletter is produced in both online and hardcopy formats. Every annual subscription includes unlimited access to the website, including new articles as they are published and the archive of over 4,000 articles.

A unique coverage of politics, economics, diplomacy, business and military affairs takes you behind the general media headlines on Africa, providing original, in-depth analysis to those who need to know what is really happening in Africa.
